

Position Type:

Co-op, Internship, Full Time

Work Authorization:

US Citizen, Permanent Resident

Salary Range:

Not Specified

Qualifications:

Bachelor's degree in Metallurgy or related field.

Preference to those with experience in metallurgical practices and copper based related experience an industrial environment, and foundry casting.

Good organizational and analytical skills, problem solving skills and techniques, engineering skills.

Strong documentation skills, verbal and written communication skills, & knowledge of Microsoft Word, Excel.

Important Dates

Posted On:

Jul 10, 2009 Applications Accepted Until:

Oct 30, 2010

Screening Criteria

Majors/Concentrations

Material Science & Engineering

Degree Level(s)

Bachelors, Masters, Doctorate

Minimum GPA

3.25

Work Authorization

US Citizen, Permanent Resident

Class Level

Senior, Graduate Student - Masters, Graduate Student - PhD

Applicant Type

Spring, Spring through Summer, Summer, Summer through Fall, Fall